“Contribution to Amateur Football Award”

Presented by the WNY Amateur Football Alliance

This award is presented each year to an individual with a minimum of ten (10) years of service to a Youth/Amateur Football Organization, who has continually supported and is a strong advocate of the game of football!

This individual has exhibited positive character traits to his/her athletes and is a good role model in the community while living up to the motto:

“Athletes First, Winning Second”!
